The notes provided below are for the purpose of providing information only, and do not constitute legal advice.

These notes are prepared for the purposes of this representation agreement form. They should not be considered a complete description of matters to be taken into account in making a representation agreement. A person making a representation agreement, or acting as a representative, alternate representative or monitor, should consult the Representation Agreement Act and the Representation Agreement Regulation to ensure that they understand their rights and duties.

NOTE 1: Actions that must be taken to revoke a previous Representation Agreement

To revoke a previous representation agreement, you must also give written notice of the revocation to each representative, each alternate representative, and any monitor named in that representation agreement. Revocation is effective when this notice is given, or on a later date stated in the notice.

NOTE 2: Effect of revocation on a previous section 7 Representation Agreement

If you have previously made a section 7 representation agreement that is still effective, it will be revoked by the revocation provision in this representation agreement.

NOTE 3: Naming a Representative

- (a) This form provides for the naming of one representative and one alternate representative. If you wish to name more than one representative to act at the same time, do not use this form.
- (b) The Representation Agreement Act sets out who may be named as a representative. If an individual is appointed, that individual must be 19 years of age or older, and must not be an individual who provides personal care or health care services to the adult for compensation, or who is an employee of a facility in which the adult resides and through which the adult receives personal care or health care services, unless the individual is a child, parent or spouse of the adult.
- (c) A representative must complete the Certificate of Representative or Alternate Representative in Form 1 under the Representation Agreement Regulation.

The information in this note also applies in respect of an alternate representative.

NOTE 4: Statutory declaration for evidence of authority of Alternate Representative

A statutory declaration that may be used is included with this form.

Additional evidence establishing the authority of the alternate representative to act in place of the representative may be required for some purposes.

NOTE 5: What a Representative may and may not be authorized to do under a section 7 Representation Agreement

Under a section 7 representation agreement, a representative may be authorized to help the adult make decisions, or to make decisions on behalf of the adult, about all of the following things:

- the routine management of the adult's financial affairs, as described in the Representation Agreement Regulation;
- obtaining legal services for the adult and instructing counsel to commence proceedings, or to continue, compromise, defend or settle any legal proceedings on the adult's behalf;
- the adult's personal care, and major health care and minor health care, as defined in the Health Care (Consent) and Care Facility (Admission) Act.

Under a section 7 representation agreement, a representative may not be authorized to do any of the following:

- to help the adult make decisions, or to make decisions on behalf of the adult, about the adult's financial affairs, other than the routine management of the adult's financial affairs as described in the Representation Agreement Regulation;
- to commence divorce proceedings on the adult's behalf;
- to help make, or to make on the adult's behalf, a decision to refuse health care necessary to preserve life;

- despite the objection of the adult, to physically restrain, move or manage the adult, or authorize another person to do these things;

- to refuse consent to those matters in relation to the Mental Health Act set out in section 11 of the Representation Agreement Act.

- make or change a will for the adult.

(Please note that this list may not be complete.)

NOTE 6: What a Monitor is and whether one is required

- (a) A monitor is a person responsible for making reasonable efforts to determine whether a representative is complying with the representative's duties under the Representation Agreement Act.
- (b) A monitor is required for this representation agreement if the representation agreement authorizes a representative to make, or help make, decisions concerning routine management of the adult's financial affairs, unless the representative is the adult's spouse, the Public Guardian and Trustee, a trust company or a credit union.
